I.

Violation of Mandatory Condition

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

Nature of Noncompliance

On April 10, 2013, in Fort Worth, Texas, Anthony Lawan Thomas violated this condition of supervised release when he assaulted Quarreidra Cooke by punching her in the face with a closed fist, as evidenced by his arrest by Fort Worth, Texas, police for Assault Causing Bodily Injury, in violation of Texas Penal Code § 22.01(A) (1), a Class A misdemeanor. On April 11, 2013, Mr. Thomas posted bond and was released from the Tarrant County jail. On April 24, 2013, the charge was No Billed by the Grand Jury in case no. 1322060 in the Criminal District Court No. 1, Tarrant County, Texas.

On April 17 and 19, 2013, Mr. Thomas was questioned about the assault by Senior U.S. Probation Officer Richey James. Mr. Thomas adamantly denied initiating the assault. Instead, Mr. Thomas reported that he was the victim, as he was struck in the face by Ms. Cooke after she became jealous and accused him of "cheating." Further, Mr. Thomas reported that he attempted to stop a fight that broke out between Ms. Cooke and another adult female, Kearra Carter, at the scene. Ms. Cooke has submitted an affidavit to the Tarrant County District Attorney's Office dated April 14, 2013, recanting her version of the assault told to police. In the affidavit, Ms. Cooke reported being the perpetrator of the assault and admitted punching Mr. Thomas in the nose.

When questioned by Senior USPO James, Mr. Thomas denied the allegations. At the time of his arrest, Fort Worth police confiscated $2,100 cash from Mr. Thomas.

Upon resolution of the pending charge, the Court will be notified and an appropriate recommendation for Court action will be submitted. In the interim, the probation office will continue to monitor Mr. Thomas' compliance with supervision.
